Kamine Island.

Lelouch, C.C, and Suzaku came out of the elevator. Now they were again in that cave. They did not hear the shots, what's mean battle is over for now. But Lelouch was thinking about something else.

He did it. After all these years of dreams about revenge, he kills him. Lelouch killed his father Charles Zi Britannia! And his mother too.

But what he had lost..Euphie, Shirley, Rolo. Black Knights had betrayed him. Kallen doesn't trust him anymore. How many lives he took. But the most important...From his actions Nunnally...

"Lelouch."-interrupted his thoughts his childhood friend. Traitor of his own nation and of their friendship. The man who pulled the trigger and murdered Nunnally! Suzaku Kururugi the fallen knight of his sister and knight of the round."What will you do now?"-he asked in a polite tone, but his expression said that he was ready to attack him. What noticed green-haired witch.

Lelouch looked at him and only now Suzaku could see his eyes. Two red sign of geass replaced the purple eyes of the royal family. Feeling that Satan himself is looking into your soul. On his face wasn't any emotions, but inside he was filled with a bunch of feelings.

"What I will do it does not concern you, sir Kururugi."-he said, and with his partner headed for the exit from the cave. But fallen knight blocked his way.

"You had killed Euphie!"-yelled now angry Suzaku.

"And what?"-simple asked former prince. Suzaku was shocked."If you don't have anything else then I went."

"NO!"-yelled now fury Suzaku."I will do what I should have done a long time ago!"-he raised his sword and jerked in his direction. He wanted to stab him, but the blade of his sword was stopped. The blade was between palms of C.C. A second later, she pushed him aside out of the way at the same time being able to break the blade of a sword.

"You heard Lelouch. We are leaving. Do not stand in our way, boy."-threatened witch, on what Lelouch chuckled. Suzaku wanted to attack but decided that he had no chance against her.

Witch and her Warlock quietly went out of the cave and made their way towards the place where was Shinkiro. When they had gone a long distance C.C with her hands grabbed his hand and softly asked:

"What we will do now, Lelouch?"-her warlock looked at her with a little smile.

"C.C, will be you with me until the end?"-in answer, she kissed him on the cheek.

"How you like this answer?"-she smirked.

"Then...It's time to fly to Pendragon."-unexpectedly announced young devil. C.C blinked.

"And why?"-Lelouch turned towards black war machine and said:

"On my coronation."

>A mounth later. Pendragon.

Almost all the princes, princesses, and nobility were in the throne room. Waiting for the emperor output. Throne Hall was full of people. There lacks only a prince and princess. Schneizel and Cornelia were missed for a mouth. Then one of guard announced:

"Meet His Majesty, the emperor of Britannia!"

Then a dark figure came to the podium and everyone eyes widened.

On the podium came out, none other than so-called dead prince Lelouch vi Britannia. The first son of Empress Marianne. Everyone in the room was in absolute shock. He slowly set on the throne.

"How it can be.."-asked Carine new Britannia and like everyone she was in pure shock.

"Lelouch...Lelouch, it's really you?"-asked first princess Guinevere de Britannia.

"Indeed, I'm back from hell itself to change things in a right way."-said black prince.

"Lelouch."-said crown prince and pedophile Odysseus EU Britannia."I'm glad that you return. When we had found Nunnally we began to hope to find you too...But Lelouch, do not you think that it is time to finish the joke? In the end, this throne belongs to our emperor.."

"Charles Zi Britannia died by my hand."-Lelouch stated while now all world was in the shock."What makes me a new emperor of Holy Empire of Britannia!"

"Guard!"-yelled Guinevere."Seize this freak!"-A detachment of guards immediately ran towards Lelouch, pointing their spears at him. But suddenly someone jumped from the ceiling and broken blades of their spears.

It was cyborg Jeremiah Gottwald. Madly loyal knight of his lord. He stood to the right of his master and smirked in the camera.

"Let me introduce you, the captain of my royal guard Jeremiah Gottwald!"-suddenly behind him appeared ten figures, dressed in scarlet robes with pointed helmets on their heads and black visors that closed their faces.

"Lelouch, you know you can be emperor."-tried to calm down his younger brother Odysseus. Then Lelouch raised his right hand and removed the lens. Now red eyes looked on them.

"Then."-he stood from a throne."Recognize me as your emperor!"-ordered already new emperor Lelouch vi Britannia.

"Lelouch we-"-wanted to stop him Odysseus, but then he has lost his mind."ALL HAIL LELOUCH!"-now happily said, Odysseus.

"ALL HAIL LELOUCH!"-everyone shouted under his geass. Devilish smiled appeared on the face of new 99's emperor of Britannia.

"ALL HAIL LELOUCH!"

Knights of the Round silently watched translation. Bismarck and Suzaku watched translation with fury while Gino was in shocked.

"Wait, Lelouch from royalty?!"-asked natural blond. In other room, Schneizel and Cornelia watched translation with different expressions. While Cornelia was in mad mode, Schneizel on other hand smirked.

"My my, Lelouch. So what the world now would choose?"-said the second prince, but now maybe former prince.

Lelouch watched as everyone shouted his name. Of course, he was pleased with it. People who called him a commoner prince now kneeled before him. Oh how long he wanted this!...Well one mouth, but that's not important right now! He should start the next part of the plan. He raised his hand to stop them. And instantly they went silent.

"My father believed that only a strong can rule the weak. He was not worried about anything except power. And power led him to his end! He did not care about his people, about his family! All my life I was weak. But after I lose everything, I became strong! Now all I want it's gentle world! The World without war! The World where all people could be live in peace! Now, under my rule together we can create a new world! Together we can change everything!"-then raised his fist in the air, and then said what he thought he will never do.

"ALL HAIL BRITANNIA!"

>European Union.

On one of the secret bases, bonde major Leila Malcal with all her team and W-0 stuff watched translation. They said not a word, but she could not take her eyes from the new emperor. More precisely from his eyes, something familiar in them was what she saw as a child. But she could not remember what exactly.

"Young prince, you had avenged your mother! You had avenged Lady Marianne!"-tears began to fall from his face.

>Boston Military Academy.

Boston Military Academy was best in all empire. Academy has graduates like Knights of Round Gino Weinberg, Nonnette Enneagram, princess Cornelia but also empress Marianne. All the students were in the main hall, as well as the whole world watched the broadcast.

One girl asked her friend:

"Cinder, what are you think about new emperor?"-asked her black skinned friend. A girl named Cinder looked at her. One of her amber eyes was partially covered by her black hair.

"I think that his majesty will make the world more interesting."-she softly said and smiled. In the end, not everyday you find out that man which you hate is dead. She was grateful to him.

>Area 24.

In he government building 88's princess of empire and viceroy of Area 24 Marrybell mel Britannia watched a broadcast with widened eyes and open mouth, She was in deep shock, well probably like all world. But then her knight of honor and best friend Oldrin Zevon returned her on an earth.

"Your highness, are you alright?"-asked her childhood friend and what she waved hand.

"Yes Oz, I'm okay. It's just my half-brother returned from dead , killed our father and took the throne. I'm okay."-she smiled and then fainted. It was too much for her.

The broadcast has ended, and now Lelouch sat on his new throne. All had already left the hall. His royal guard stood behind him. It was not easy to find thus guys. They were one of most elite soldiers in the empire, but use geass and now they are his guard. Then C.C come from a shadow.

"Lelouch, are you sure about what are you doing?"-asked his partner on what he lazily sighed.

"C.C, if I want to create the world without war. The world where everyone will live in peace, like I said. A gentle world that Nunnally wanted. Then.."-young emperor closed his eyes and finally said:

"This world should belong to me."

And we're here! Oh, my I did it, I started to write my third fanfic. if you are reading my others fanfics(I hope so) don't worry I'll let this story from time to time. Now let's speak abour story!

1. Lelouch is going to take over the world. There wouldn't be Zero Requiem because I always thought it was a stupid to plan. I mean how he death can united people? Maybe for some years, yes, but then again people will start another war. It's natural for us. But under his rule world will enter a new age, a Golden Age..well I want so.

2. This story will be linked to others Code Geass shows. I mean Akito and Oz of the reflection. But you already understand this. I will change them a little. For example, Leila remained in the army. And in the end, I plan to make a grand finale with all the characters together! That will be awesome!

3. I began to introduce to you my OC. Well Cinder from RWBY because I writing a crossover between them and because I want to see her as a new knight of the round. Oops, spoilers!

4. About pairings. I want LelouchXharem. Because All hail Lelouch, that's why.

2. Chapter 2: Plans for the future

Before you start I want to say my thanks to everyone! People liked quickly fanfic and I decide to focus on this fanfic.Your support really means a lot to me! * And because my beta-reader of another fanfic is busy for personal reasons. So my first fanfic is frozen, for now, my second fanfic is stopped for some time. Soooo thanks that you read this! And sorry for errors! So Let's start!

BBC Chanel.

It took only ten days from the date when his Majesty Emperor Lelouch sat on the throne, and already there have been major reforms.

Colonies were disbanded and transformed into special zones. The people of these zones have received rights on a par with the Britannia's. Now they have the right to join the army and take the officer ranks. Groups of purebloods were disbanded and they themselves moved into the newly formed legions who report directly to the emperor. Most of the nobility lost their rights, and the remaining were converted into special companies. Prince Schneizel and Princess Cornelia lost their titles and they are declared in the list of most wanted enemies of the empire. Formers Knights of the Rounds lost their titles and declared as traitors too. Beginning with the first Prince Odysseus all royal family supported his Majesty. Emperor Lelouch already was called a hero and defender of the people. The people call him the white emperor.

>Pendragon. May 29, 2018.

In throne room was a huge gathering of soldiers dressed in new uniforms. They were dressed in gray uniforms with white cloaks and black helmets. They were legionaries and all their eyes were focused on the seated figure in the center of the hall. The white emperor Lelouch vi Britannia was dressed in his white robe.

"Lelouch vi Britannia command to each one of you..be my slave!"-a pair of red birds hit in the eye and changed their minds, making them loyal servants of their master.

"ALL HAIL LELOUCH! ALL HAIL LELOUCH! ALL HAIL LELOUCH!"-saluted legionaries to their emperor while their purple visors closed their faces.

After they left the room, leaving his majesty with his guards and his assistant. Scarlet guards the so-called personal security of His Majesty. They were dressed in red robes that cover their entire body. On the head, they wore conical hats with black visors. Their weapons were an automatic rifle with a bayonet-like spears. Two guards stood behind the Emperor while his assistant stood before him. The man was in his 35. He was of medium build with brown hair and wearing glasses.

"Alfred, what else is scheduled for today."-asked young monarch while he put his lens on his eyes. A man called Alfred looked into the tablet.

"Right now, Lord Jeremiah wants to report to reform the status of the remaining nobles."-what means that Jeremiah had already killed the rebel nobles. Lelouch rubbed his nose. This was ten days of hard work for him. Do not give a chance for raise revolution and get rid of the malcontents is not the easiest job. He hardly slept these days.

"Then audience with Lord Asplund and his assistant Lady Cecile Croomy."-the scientist that create Lancelot will be very useful for him. Lelouch will need new knightmares in near future.

"Then you have an audience with your sister princess Marrybell mel Britannia."-Lelouch remembered little Marrybell and that girl that was always near her. They spent a little time together in childhood but were very similar. He even respected her slightly.

"After this, you have another audience a former knight of rounds which spent last ten years ina prison."-it was according to his plan. Now Lelouch needs new knights of the round if he wants to stand against Schneizel and the whole world. His troops managed to get rid of the eighth and fifth knight of the round. The second and eleven was killed before he took the throne. But there left others and Suzaku with them. He closed his eyes. Personally, Lelouch wanted her as his knight but it was too late...

"What are you thinking about, Lelouch?"-asked his partner in crime. C.C was dressed in a new black dress similar to her outfit in Black Knights. But this one was longer and has red geass emblems like on his robe. On the head, she wore a gold diadem. She came over and sat down on the seat next to him. Lelouch assured her that it means nothing but C.C realized to what it all leads and just smiled slyly and decided to wait when the boy will make his move towards her.

"What is, C.C?"-Lelouch asked.

"It's about the elevator."-now Lelouch looked at her with an interested expression."After what we've done in that night, the elevator changed."

"How exactly?"-asked Lelouch.

"It no longer teleports."-she said on what Lelouch murmured 'Oh'. He wanted to use elevators in his plans. In Pendragon was one and he wanted to start from this but now."But we can still use them."

"And how?"

"They have weakened and lost its former power but they still useful for us. My forces there become larger and I can feel our contract better, but not only this. I think I can also feel other geass users around the world."-now Lelouch was surprised.

"Are you sure about this? I thought I had killed all geass users with their cult."-another geass users can be a problem for his plans.

"There still geass users..or user. I felt someone, he or she still weak but their have geass un this I'm sure. And I think it someone from my old contactors."

"Just how many you had?"

"I don't remember all of them but it someone not so old. After I made new contract I lose old, however, I can still feel them when they a near me. But where this user is unknown to me for now. But I think I can find him."

"Very well, when you find this user inform me and I will send Jeremiah after them. I don't want to take a rick and I don't need other geass users."-he turned forward."Call Jeremiah, I have many things to do."-his assistant nodded. Few minutes later cyborg knight and captain of his royal guard entered the throne room. He came to the throne and bowed on knees before his master.

"Hail your majesty. I come with good news."-said Jeremiah."The remains of the nobility and purebloods that did not obey to your majesty were eliminated."

"When they realize that their resistance against me is futile."-sighed Lelouch.

"When from people take theirs they want it back."-answered C.C while hugged her Cheese-kun.

"Maybe, but they must understand that now they have to put up with my ruling."-Lelouch looked at Alfred."Call Lord Asplund and his assistant."-and again his geassed assistant nodded. Few minutes later so-called'Pudding Lord' by Rakshata and his assistant entered the throne room. Both are dressed in work clothes. They came to the throne and bowed on knees before him.

"Lord Asplund, an outstanding scientist and genius when it came to KMF of my empire and his assistant Cecile Croomy always gorgeous and one of smartest woman in Britannia, I glad to have people like you two."-said Lelouch on what Lloyd shyly smiled and Cecile blushed while C.C just rolled her eyes. Instead of just use geass on them, he wants that they wanted to work on him themselves.

"It's our honor to be here your majesty, right Lloyd?"-dangerously raised an eyebrow Cecile. She doesn't want to speak with Lelouch...because she is insanely shy. Cecile always liked boys. Not like she ever was with any of them...or with men. But now before was Lelouch and god dammit he was too perfect!

"Aya aya Cecile, don't tell me you already fallen in love with his Majesty. Naughty Cecile."-teased her Lloyd. They worked together for so long that he always knows what in her mind.

"Lloyd! Here his Majesty, so please show your respect!"-Cecile said as if she scolded him, but in fact, her face was as red as scarlet guards robes.

"Indeed Lloyd, you better be more cautious before your emperor."-warned him dangerously Jeremiah while give him a hard look. He was near Lelouch before the scarlet guard.

"Hey, Jeremiah! It's been while when we saw each other last time. I remember the last time.."-Llyod wanted to continue, but then he saw Lelouch's face which says'You'd better start talking about the work, or...'-Lloyd wasn't an idiot and when knows better shut up."Well, I'm sure we will have time to talk. So young emperor."-Lelouch smiled at him, not everyone could speak so freely before the man who can destroy their lives."How I can serve you?"

"Lloyd Asplund and Cecile Croomy you two worked for my brother, but after the event in Tokyo and my coronation, you were gone and took Avalon with you."-on what they two nodded."Then I want to ask you. What Schneizel has got?"-both scientist looked at each other and Lloyd said:

"Besides former knights of the round and their knightmares. He has blueprints of Lancelot Albion."-Lelouch blinked. Did Suzaku had another Lancelot?

"What exactly this KMF?"-he asked.

"New 9th generation KMF. Lancelot Albion uses energy wings. I wanted to make it a long time ago, but the drawings stayed with Suzaku..."-the last part, he said, with sadness in his voice.

"I see. Well, now you will busy for a long time."-now Lloyd brightened."I have enough work for both of you."-Lelouch snapped his fingers and Alfred went up to them and gave them some drawings."1-I want you to make personal KMF for my guard and C.C. 2-Lloyd you will upgrade my KMF. And last one you can see on last pages."-Lloyd and Cecile immediately flipped to the last page. Their eyes went wide when their saw what Lelouch wanted them to build.

"_Nemesis_...well it will the biggest project we ever had!"-happily said, mad scientist."I think I could finish it in one month."-Cecile sighed, it will be a really hard mouth.

"Very well, you will have everything you need. But for now, you two can go."-they saluted him and left, accompanied by two scarlet guards. When they went Lelouch sighed, well work becomes less and less. But now he must meet his half-sister.

Marrybell mel Britannia entered the throne room and her eyes widened when she saw her brother. Of course, she saw him on TV. But now she must admit that Lelouch becomes fine young man. She comes here alone, her team and knight stayed outside waiting for her. Marrybell came to the throne and bowed on her knees before him. Familly or not he is now her emperor because their father was killed by him about what she will speak with him. Then she noticed the green-haired girl in black dress set near him. Could it be their new empress?

"Marry! It's been a while, don't it?"-asked Lelouch as he stood from his throne and suddenly hugged her. For everyone's surprise here.

"Indeed brother Lelo-I mean your Majesty."-Lelouch looked at her.

"Marry, you can call me by name, we're family after all."-he said with soft voice and warm smile. But she thought about their father.

"Then why you had killed our father?"-Marrybell mel Britannia not really liked her father. He was a cold man, but she always thought that because of hard work and that former is a really good man which cared about his family and his country. Silly girl...

"Marry, that man was a cruelest dictator in all history if Britannia. Believe me, he didn't care about us or Britannia. If really cared then why he send me and Nunnally to death!"-Lelouch did not notice when he began to put pressure on her hand. He dropped her hands."Sorry, I just-"

"It's okay Lelouch. Now when you said it I started to think about our father's activities. You maybe right, I just..he was our father and emperor. And now it's all so hard for me. Now brother Schneizel and sister Cornelia considered as enemies of the empire."-she finished and looked in his eyes."I need time to get used to new things. But Lelouch what about Schneizel and Cornelia? Why they're our enemies?"-Lelouch sighed.

"Schneizel made the most terrible thing. He used F.R.E.I.J.A. and had killed millions of people from both sides."-she knows this,but Marrybell tried to reassure herself that it was the best of intentions."And had killed Nunnally."-hissed Lelouch. Marrybell's eyes again widened and she shocked. Nunnally was dead. No one talked about it, and so she did not know about it. Nunnally was the most gentle and holy girl she knew was no more...And then looked at Lelouch with sorrow expiration. How it hard must be for him. He lost sister and mother. And now he must rule the empire. is really hard work for one man. She realized that he had done it all in memory of her.

"Lelouch."-she said and again she kneeled before him to his surprise."I'm Marrybell mel Britannia swear with my life to serve my empire and my emperor."-Lelouch blinked.

"Why Marry?"-all he asked.

"Now I understand what a heavy burden you have. I'm sorry that thought bad about you. Now I want to help you to create a gentle world."-Lelouch was surprised. But then he smiled with his usual devilish smile."What your orders your Majesty?"-she asked with a smile on her face. And Lelouch thought about this.

"For now nothing, but I will call you when I will need. For now, you can go."-she wanted to go, but she had another question.

"By the way Lelouch, who is that?"-she pointed at C.C"She is your..emm a fiancÃ©e?"-she asked with little blush one her face. Lelouch sighed.

"No, she is not."-he said and if you will listen carefully you can hear how C.C said-'Now yet.'-Jeremiah, for example, heard and smirked. After Marrybell gone Lelouch sat on his throne and turned to his partner."Why everyone think that you my mistress?"

"Because it is true and only you can not admit it."-C.C said with a smirk.

"Whatever."-Lelouch rolled his eyes."Who is next?"-he asked his assistant.

"Sir William Bishop former second knight of the round."-Lelouch smirked. That William already has to position in his chess."Must I call him now?"-his emperor nodded and few minutes later William Bishop entered at room accompanied by his guards. He had a large body, violet hair and silver eyes. His growth had been like Bismarck's. When he came to the throne he fell to his knees.

"Your Majesty, please I beg your pardon!"-he shouted what surprised Lelouch and C.C.

"Rise your hand, sir William."-he did as his emperor said."And now tall me for what you ask my forgiveness?"

"For what, I hadn't protected you Majesty and princess Nunnally when needed. For what I hadn't avenged your mother. And for the fact that I had let down the empire."-Lelouch blinked.

"What do you mean by that?"

"You Majesty, you see before me your mother Lady Marianne! became an empress she was a second knight of the round."-he nodded."I always respected and loved her."-Lelouch and C.C glanced at each other."And when she was killed and the emperor did not look for the killer, and you with the Princes sent to another country and stripped of title I stand against first knight sir Bismarck for his title. I wanted to became a first knight of the round and then kill the emperor."-their eyes widened."I didn't care about my life. But I lost, they learned about my plan and threw me in jail. And I was there for ten years before you have taken revenge on that monster that was called an emperor! So please your Majesty forgive me for my fail."-he bowed his head to the floor. Lelouch stared at him few seconds before he stood. He drew his sword with which he trained the past three days and came to him.

"Indeed, sir William you had to fail me."-William felt how his heart was broken into pieces, but he didn't show it."And your punishment will be..."-he was ready for everything, in the end, he was earned it."Serve me and new Britannia with your life for the rest of your life as the first knight of the round"-he blinked. It wasn't the punishment but the greatest honor for him."William Bishop, do you swear your absolute allegiance to me?"-he didn't know what to do but then saw that Jeremiah nodded to him with the smile. Then he said:

"I swear."-then he placed his right hand on his heart.

"Do you swear to protect weak and needy?"

"I swear."

"Do you swear to give you life for the world and it's future?"

"I swear."

"Then."-Lelouch placed his bloody red sword on his shoulders in turn."I'm Lelouch vi Britannia, the 99th empire of Holy Britannia! I grant you the rank of the first knight of the round! Now you may rise, sir William."-William did as his emperor told him."My captain of guard Jeremiah."-Lelouch pointed at Jeremiah."Will explain your situation, for now, you both have the same orders. I already give orders to make a new KMF for you. Now you can go, I have work to do."-In truth Lelouch just tired and did not want to work. Jeremiah and William saluted to him and leave a hall. Lelouch sat on his throne and sighed."Well at list it all for today."-he weakly smiled. But then Alfred said:

"Actually You Majesty, right now you have training on KMF and martial-arts."-Lelouch sighed while C.C giggled.

"My my Lelouch, you should train for now."-she said and then whispered in his ear."And tonight we will have another special train int our bedroom."-she said it softly. Lelouch smirked and said:

"I think I will have some power for that."

>Secret base in Brazil. May 29, 2018.

Schneizel and Cornelia with now former knights of the round hid on one of the bases. Right now he was in the room with his Cornelia, his loyal assistant Kanon, and Deithard Reid discussed plans for the future.

"How is _she_?"-asked Cornelia.

"Right now she sleeps in her room, it still hard for her."-said Schneizel.

"It was hard for all of us, brother. Lelouch he used geass on everyone!"-yelled angrily, Cornelia. They know that Lelouch geassed their siblings because they would never agree on what Lelouch wanted.

"But we can declare it the press."-said Deithard."Emperor Lelouch has people support and there no more purebloods."

"Then what we can do?!"-again yelled angrily Cornelia at former black knight.

"Damocles"-said Schneizel and drew the attention of all on himself.

"But we have small stocks, your highness. We do not have a lot of people and vehicles. And after the departure of Lloyd we don't have Avalon too."-said Kanon.

"But we have blueprints."-replied Deithard and Kanon glared at him.

"But we can build for now only one thing. Damocles or Albion, and it will take all our resources. The building of Damocles will takes mouths."

"We can ask help from Black knights."

"No, we will now"-hissed Cornelia.

"Yes, we will not."-said Schneizel."Kanon, Mr Reid we will start building Damocles. And we will wait."

"Wait for what? Lelouch will ruin Britannia!'-shouted Cornelia. She didn't know about his abilities as the leader.

"We will wait for his victory against the remaining countries in Europe."-said former where the prince and looked at world's map."It's only matter of time before they decide to attack Britannia."

"And I telling you all we must attack!"-shouted former minister of France. He was in the room with other EU's politics and generals...That left. After many defeats against Britannia, EU became too small. Coast of France Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Norway, Spain and Portugal now all belongs to Britannia. There in the Europe, people began to revolt for to join the Empire. Britannia's marine terrorized every country who had access to the sea. The island of Great Britain was the main base of the fleet of the empire here. The first house of the British has become a source of hatred the rest of Europe. It and damn where prince Schneizel el Brittania and white death Suzaku Kururugi. They were happy when this two lost their titles and became enemies of their own country.

"And it again."-sighed Chancellor of Germany."We have to tell you that we will not do it."

"But why! He just a boy on the throne."-he said and some politics nodded in agreement. Oh my, how he was wrong.

"Boy or not, Britannia is still has a greater number of people and better KMF then ours. Attack her now will be suicide for all EU."-and again some politics nodded.

"Maybe we must unite with UFN?"-said someone.

"With this elevens? Never!"-said someone.

"We must fight!"

"Yes, we must return our homes!"

"SILENCE!"-shouted Chancellor of Germany then sighed."I understand that many of you are pissed with we loses, but a truth that we don't have a plan or enough KMF to fight back."

"Actually, I think I have an answer to our problem."-said a man with greyish green and gray eyes in military uniform.

"What you have general Smilas?"-his name was Gene Smilas. He stood from the shadow and come to the centre of the room.

"I know what we must do, but we all must do it together. And we take what belongs to us."-many eyes watched him with interest. Especially a pair of eyes with a red circle in them.

And we're here! I have a lot of things to say but let's order:

1. Timeline. I decide that my story will start from May 29. Building of Damocles will take more time then in canon. Because I always thought that create something like this must take a lot of time, well more then just one mouth! And yes I believe that Lelouch can change entire empire in ten days. Because..come on it's Lelouch he can do it.

2. Harem. I wrote that here will be harem and here will be a harem. Just not so big how some of you wanted. I wanted small harem from 4 women: Kallen, C.C, Cinder(my OC from RWBY) and the last one is secret :). But I'm sure that no one paired them before. And yes 4 females it's already harem.

3. Lelouch used his Geass on purebloods to reduce losses and not kill them. Scarlet guard it's the same that have Emperor Palpatine from Start Wars. Find in google, if you want and look how they looking.

4. Schneizel doesn't want to unite with EU because they want his head.

5. Like I said in start I will focus on this fanfic. **

Next chapter I will finaly introduse my OC and some action!

P.S there will not be crossover, just some characters from other anime.

End
